Intellectuals... Reconciliation with oneself... the Nation to promote , the Arab Project

For over a year from the crisis, we all realize that the aim of the plot against Syria is undermining its national approaches, a real implementation of the so called 'The Greater Middle East Project' and the destruction of the Arab powers by replacing them with Arab fights along with wasting the Arab resources and manipulating them to finance colonial wars.

The Important Role of the Arab Intellectual:

Arab Intellectuals for sure are the most important members of the Arab powers and they have a historical role to change the current reality to the better.

Our nation is always in dire need to the visions.

thoughts, projects and the powers of the intellectuals that can get it out of its stagnation, chaos and backwardness.

Intellectual in the Face Terrorism:

Here the role of the Arab intellectuals to confront the fierce conspiracy against Syria has become clearer especially after the savage ways undertaken by the colonial powers such as calls for foreign interference and bringing paid mercenaries to Syria.

Consensus of the people:

The diversity of Syrian Arab society has given a richness of its ideas and visions. All sects in Syria are calling for national unity and evade what happened in Iraq and Libya, rejecting any "Spring" made by the Zionist-Colonial powers of the West.

The time is now for reconciliation with oneself. Arab intellectuals must now expose the dimensions of the economic sanctions and falseness of the legitimacy of the Arabic European League against the freedom of the Arabs and their rights.

National leadership workshop Arab world in the Heart of Regional and International Conflict

The national Research Body at Al-Baath National leadership on Sunday 2012/5/27 carried out a workshop entitled (Arab world in the Heart of Regional and International Conflict) with the participation of a group of researchers and people who are interested in cultural, strategical and political affairs.

Dr. Diab: Arab world focal point for the global system:

The meeting was headed by Comrade Dr. Ali Diab, a professor at Damascus University, Director of the Central Party school and former Ambassador of Syria in Brazil. Dr. Diab stressed the need to face foreign schemes against the Arab world since ancient times until now, because of its strategic importance, which is the focal point between its four ancient civilizations and crossroads of the East and the West and the existence of vital resources such as oil and gas, apart from being the scene of rivalry between the conflicting forces of hegemony. Dr. Diab reiterated that the Arab region still has a lot of constituents that prevent it from getting old and called for the need to deal with events with vigilance and realistic away from fantasy and dreams.

Dr. Shuaibi: Syria and High Price :

Dr. Imad Fawzi Al-shuaibi, Director of the Center for data and strategic studies , the spokesman in the workshop confirmed that the Arab world has witnessed conflicts of influence and international ambitions, because of its strategic importance and vital resources.

Dr. Shuaibi noted that Syria, for being in a sensitive area, has paid a heavy price as a result of the conflict and the consequences of events that occurred in the world since the second world war and the creation of Israel" in the region

Dr. Darwish: our Homeland and the development of peoples:

In turn Dr. Issa Darwish, an advisor in the Research Body and former ambassador confirmed that the vital importance of the Arab region has the greatest influence in the evolution of peoples' life throughout history.

Dr. Darwish noted that the USA has dealt with Arabs as single states individually stressing that the importance of the Arab Homeland has imposed its presence at the level of international relations, especially with the big powers, such as Russian Federation, China, the European Union and Japan.

Dr. Kassam: Arab Region will remain Target for Greed:

Dr. Yahya Kassam, Director of the Department of scientific research in the body said that the conflict between States and regional entities on the Arab region is an old one that is renewed at different stages. Dr. Kassam stressed that this conflict aims at making the Arab region a scene of regional hegemony.

Interventions: The Importance of President Assad's Leadership:

The interventions during the meeting assured that the regional and international powers began to preserve its interests in the Arab region. This calls the Arabs to unite themselves and achieve their political and economic rights. Talks during the meeting also noted the importance of the leadership of President Assad and its rule in defending Syria's rights and dignity.

Democratic Regime in Syria

This regime is a genuine one that is based on our people's ambitions and fulfills its needs.

In the west they are talking about democracy while having a certain formula in mind . They want their democracy model to be applicable elsewhere without giving any consideration to the circumstances and characteristics of each region and its cultural and ideologies.

Democracy cannot be Imported:

Democracy should be connected to the country it exists in and must fulfill people's needs at every stage of its evolution . It also must share the people in the political system and the development and building of the country . Democracy is not only about political system but exceeds it to all aspects of life .

Syria which is a part of the Arab nation cannot apply imported experiments that don't go with our people's reality and cultural richness . Here we should quote president Assad's words ' We as a state , we tolerate to our people's advantage and don't accept foreign agendas' . ' We shouldn't apply others' democracy . Western democracies for example is a culmination of a long history - to apply their democracy, we have to live their history .

Freedom is the Basis of Democracy:

Our freedom cannot be completed unless we express its dimension . Building public democratic system has been a priority of the Baath Party since the Correctionist Movement . That system has been based on the people to meet its needs and ambitions .

Benefit of Society Over Individual's Freedom:

Real democracy is only practiced by free citizens . The freedom of the individual and his community cannot have a contradiction, but must be complementarily . The individual can be free only in a free and the free society cannot be free in this sense unless it secures liberty for individuals .
